REMAP Amsterdam expert-meeting

16-18 October 2025

REMAP Expert Meeting in Amsterdam

From 15-17 October 2025, the REMAP: Reading for Meaning and Purpose project organized an expert meeting at VU University Amsterdam. Over twenty-five members participated from the University of Navarra, University of Amsterdam, University of Latvia, Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts, and Ayalde high school.

The expert meeting focused on...

...the development of chapters for the project handbook

A Companion to Meaningful Reading and the project course Reading for Life. The handbook will serve as a valuable educational resource for secondary school teachers and higher education lecturers who wish to integrate meaningful reading practices into their courses. It will have sections on theory, pedagogical practice, literary genres, and themes.

The meeting also featured several distinguished keynote speakers: Edward Brooks (University of Oxford / Oxford Character Project), Karen Bohlin (Harvard University / Abigail Adams Institute), and Olivia Fialho (Utrecht University / Huygens Institute KNAW).
